

RCO Ministries

in the Holy Land

February 2014

Dear Partners,

Living in the Holy Land allows us to understand the significance of waiting for the late rains as James mentions! The local farmers depend on the early rains, at the beginning of the winter season, to plow their land and sow their seeds, but they also hope and wait for the late rains before harvest. It is these late rains that help sustain the life of the plant and contribute to the growth of the proper fruit. This past winter we did not receive the early rain. However, late in December a massive snow storm hit the region. It was the biggest storm witnessed in the area for nearly 70 years. At this time of the year we are praying to receive the promised late rains in every sense of the word, physically as well as spiritually as we seek the fruit of God's presence among us!

Be patient, therefore, brothers, until the coming of the Lord. See how the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, being patient about it, until it receives the early and the late rains
James 5: 7

We Praise the Lord For:

- the special outpouring of the Holy Spirit we witnessed this past year!
- you standing in the gap with us through your prayers and financial support.
- the new families that have joined the church.

Join us in Prayers For:

- safe travels for Dr. Munir and Sharon Kakish who are currently in the U.S. speaking on behalf of the ministry.
- the children at the Home of New Life as they are faced with difficulties in their education and are struggling to meet their class standards, due to their backgrounds.
- RCO leadership as they minister with the absence of Dr. Munir and Sharon.
- our Lord's will to be made known to us as we are in preparation for the upcoming Lent / Easter season.

A Special Note of Praise!

We are especially thankful for the way the Lord has led us to meet and be joined with Emily Peterson as one of our staff members at RCO Ministries. Emily has joined RCO Ministries in the summer of 2013 as our chief accountant and has since been a tremendous blessing to this ministry. Besides coming into the team with her much needed professional qualifications, she is a dedicated servant of God and a wonderful mother of four.
